MASTER OF ARTS IN TRANSATLANTIC AFFAIRS

The 21st century brings with it numerous complex challenges that the United States of America and the European Union can best address in common. These challenges have to be taken up by a new generation of experts that can assume leadership functions in transatlantic affairs across public and private sectors. To prepare graduates for positions of transatlantic leadership, The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in Medford/Boston, MA, and the College of Europe with campuses in Bruges (Belgium) and Warsaw (Poland) are offering a new, unique joint degree.
